10 Superheroes

...and real life lessons we all can learn from them

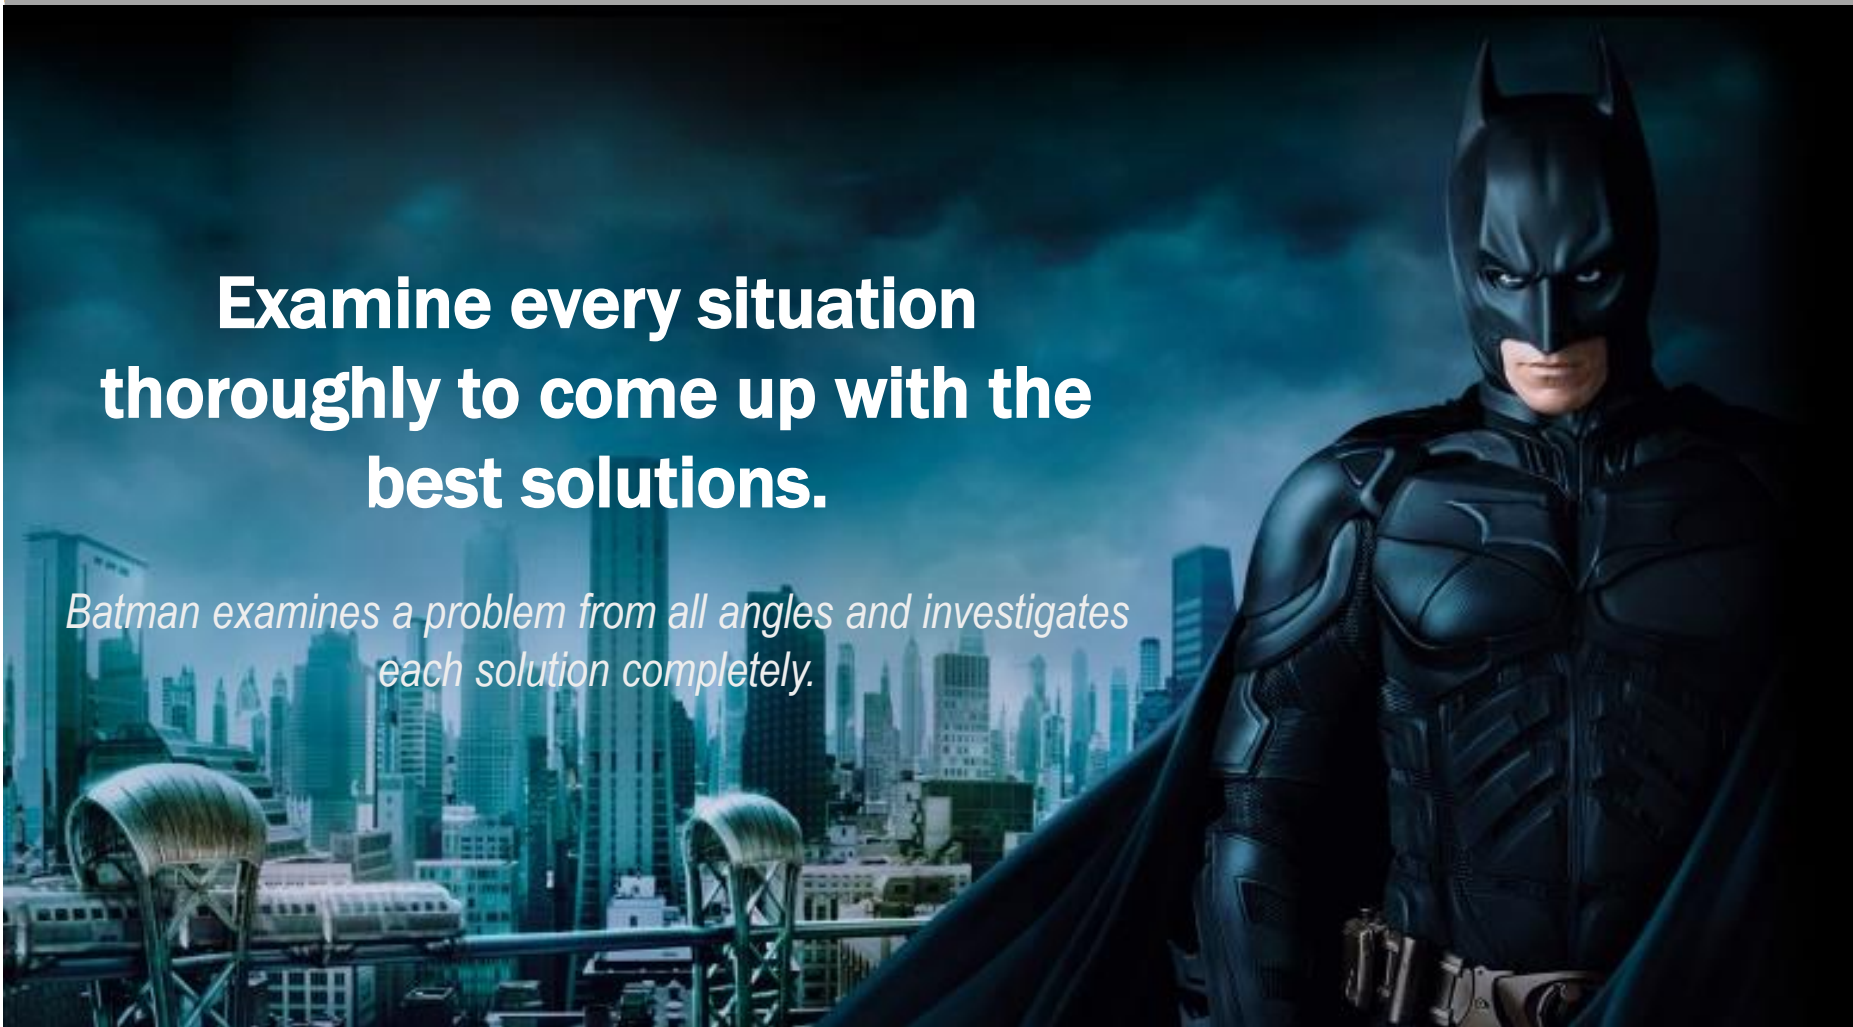

1

Batman

Examine every situation thoroughly to come up with the best solutions.

Batman examines a problem from all angles and investigates each solution completely.

2

Superman

Be sensitive – it will guide you to making the right decision for everyone.

Superman's true power is empathy which makes him the most popular superhero.

3

Spiderman

Don't take yourself too seriously. It makes it easier to get the job done.

Spiderman's always having fun, no matter how big the bad guy is.

4

Wonder Woman

Break the norms to achieve what you believe

Other than being one of the most compassionate superheroes out there, she was also one of the first widely recognized female superheroes.

5 Wolverine

Take all challenges head on and believe you're invincible.

No challenge is big enough for Wolverine and he'll make it to the end of any situation successfully.

Storm

Give back to society.

How many people would turn down being a queen to save the world? Storm's one of them and her desire to use her power for good continues throughout her life.

7

Iron Man

Use the resources available to you – big or small.

Time and time again, Iron Man has created fabulous inventions whether he's in a cave in the desert or a world class science facility.

8

Captain America

Believe in the power of your own abilities.

Other than the super strength he has, Captain America has no super powers. He uses his intellect for combat strategy and his conscious to make decisions.

The Hulk

SUPERB
WALLPAPERS

Don't react to situations when you're angry.

Bruce Banner did everything in his power to keep his alter ego in check by taking control of his anger management issues.

10 Jean Grey

Persevere – what doesn't kill you will only make your stronger.

Jean Grey has literally died and risen from the ashes as the all power Phoenix – not even death can stop her from living her destiny.
